HOAGLAND'S
NEW PATENT SHAFT COUPLING!
W. E. COOPER
HAS PURCHASED THE RIGHT FOR THIS County of the above Patent, and will hereafter use it in the construction of all the Vehicles manufactured at his extensive
Carriage Factory,
Corner of Second and Morrison Streets.
He respectfully refers to the following
CARD.
Having examined the New Patent Shaft Coupling, invented by H. R. Hoagland, we feel pleasure in informing the public that in our opinion it is the safest and best method of connecting shafts or tongues to all vehicles that has ever been used.
It fastens without bolt or screw, and is therefore, easily and speedily separated. It rests on Gutta Percha so as to be entirely free from the rattling sound which so often disturbs restless horses. It is easily changed so that the shafts or tongue may be detached in an instant, and is convenient, safe and secure.
It is easy to change to this style of coupling any buggy or other vehicle now in use, and with small expense. We have come to the conclusion to use this new invention ourselves and recommend its use in all cases. We consider it far superior to the Brewster Patent, heretofore considered the best in use.

[DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN.]

A special cabinet meeting was held to-day—all present but Cresswell.

The President returns to Long Branch to-morrow.

New York News.

NEW YORK, July 29.—Western Union Telegraph, 36¾.

The Baltic Fire Insurance Company failed yesterday. It commenced business in 1864 and never paid a dividend.

Bigelow enters upon the duties of chief editor of the Times next week.

Isaac Toucey is reported at the point of death.

A cricket match between the St. George and New York elevens was concluded to-day. The victory was for St. George's, with six wickets to spare.

New Haven Dispatch.

NEW HAVEN, July 29.—The examination of George Abbott shows, in addition to forgeries of Rock Island certificates, that he had altered some to Michigan Central certificates to large amounts, but he was arrested too soon to dispose of them. He had also ordered the purchase of some Pacific Mail stock, probably for a like purpose. Abbott refused bail and was committed for trial. This is one of the greatest swindles ever attempted, the amount involved being nearly seven hundred thousand dollars.

Thirteen of the principal clothing houses having refused to pay the increase of thirty-five per cent. demanded by their employees, the latter, numbering 1,500, have struck by order of the Tailors' Union.

It is announced that the new Hansom cabs will be in readiness for use in large numbers by the end of September.

Boston Dispatch.

Tennessee Politics.

NASHVILLE, July 29.—The Democrats nominated a legislative ticket for this county to-day. Both wings of the Republicans have also tickets in the field.

Ex-Secretary Toucey Dying.

HARTFORD, July 29.—Isaac Toucey is still alive, but no hopes are entertained of his recovery.

Cuban News.

HAVANA, July 29.—The insurgents are quite active in the central department. They lately destroyed a great deal of property near Trinidad. LONDON, July 29.—In the House of Commons, Otway, under Secretary for Foreign Affairs, in reply to a question, said the present condition of the relations between England and Mexico prevented her Majesty's Government from officially aiding the holders of Mexican bonds in the prosecution of their claims, but owing to the importance of the subject, it would be glad to hear of any satisfactory arrangement for a settlement.

The Harvard crew were out on the Thames twice in the morning, and rowed from Putney to Hammersmith and back. In the afternoon they rowed to Mont Lake and returned. They have now settled down to steady practice. Kelly will not be retained. Cox has not decided who will replace him.

NEW YORK, July 29.—The London Times has an article on the Chinese question in the United States. It thinks the conflict of races in California cannot be solved by heavy duties on immigration or by street outrages. It is impossible to suppose the Chinese can be kept out of America's liberating ancient civilization, perfect economic methods and destitute of strength and toughness of moral fibre which support authority, the Chinese may be welcomed as assistants in colonization, but not feared as a race.

ST. PETERSBURG, July 29.—The Jews have petitioned the Czar for the extension of their rights of religion and education.

A Bill for Slaves.

A correspondent of the Boston Traveler writes:

We were told here that all the old planters of Louisiana have kept a careful account of the number and value of their slaves, in order that their bills may be ready when the Government comes to pay them for their slaves, as they think it will some day. Some are foolish enough to suppose that an arrangement might somehow be made with England, by which the English would get this as an offset for the Alabama claims, and the slaveholders get the pay for their human property which the Government took from them. We have seen a bill all regularly made out, that is, according to the planter's notion, which the signer hoped to get honored some day at the National Treasury. As but few of our readers have seen such a document we will give it in full:

The Federal Authorities,
To Nathan Feeling, Dr.

For the following-named slaves, unlawfully taken away from the undersigned, and given their liberty, against the right of their owners and contrary to the consistent judgement of all Christian men and women:

Joseph, 55 years old, with one eye and a little lame; was offered $600 for him in 1860, but charge the authorities	$250
Caleb, about 32 years old consumptive some, but not bad	600
Sam, a boy about 25, very lively, was kicked by a horse in the back, but it does not affect his value as a field hand	900
Sarah, aged 40, house servant, neat and quick	500
Jim, a stout fellow, weighs 190 pounds aged 29, good disposition, will work without an overseer	2,200
Dinah, a girl ten years old very lively and affectionate	400
Old Solomon, aged seventy, good for pulling corn and handy about a cotton gin	300
Betsey, wife of Caleb, aged thirty, has sound teeth and lively fingers, is healthy	800
Betsey and John, her children, aged three and five, all plump ($100 each)	200
Verna, a stout house-girl, very neat and modest, mostly white, and of a sweet disposition; a first-class hand for a gentleman's family as house girl	1,800

The above is a true bill, at a figure much below the actual value, of my slaves taken by the Federal authorities, for which I demand payment. NATHAN FEELING.

THE CONFEDERATE DEBT.—The war debt of the Confederacy, held by Confederates, is looked upon as wholly lost, and the millions who do not hold Confederate bonds, as well as the thousands who invested their paper in solid bricks and mortar, will not willingly tax themselves or be taxed for the benefit of the better men who pinned their faith to the cause, and whose fortunes with it were lost. One thing, however, is very clear. The South had rather pay the Confederate debt than the Federal debt. For the debt of the United States we are not responsible in honor or in law. For the debt of the Confederate States we are undoubtedly responsible. That debt was contracted for our benefit, to carry on the desperate struggle for freedom. Fortunately, the debt is chiefly due to ourselve, and if it be not paid, the South, and not Europe, will be the sufferer. The Federal debt is the fruit of a war of conquest, the blood money paid for slaying our brethren, the price set upon desolated fields and ruined homes, the fruit of eight years of fraud, chicanery and wrong. Of this we will pay all that we are forced to pay, and not one farthing more.—Charleston (S. C.) News.

BULLETIN-MCCOPPIN FIGHT.—The Virginia Enterprise says:

Mayor McCoppin of San Francisco has instituted suit against L. Pickering of the Bulletin for libel. The Bulletin charged, and McCoppin has admitted, we believe, that he voted and held office before he was a citizen of the United States. Mr. Pickering should retaliate by seeing that McCoppin is indicted for perjury by the next Grand Jury, for swearing that he came into the country before he was eighteen years of age. It was on this showing that his first and second papers were issued to him in 1864. He now admits that he was in error—that he and two of his witnesses swore to what he has since discovered to be false—that he really came to the country after he had reached the age of eighteen. If Mr. Pickering has acted in a manner half as criminal as this in exposing the peculiarities of McCoppin's naturalization papers, he should be sentenced to a term in the State Prison.

In India, out of more than 150,000,000 inhabitants under direct British dominion, 110,000,000 are Hindoos, 25,000,000 Mussulmans (a much smaller proportion than was popularly supposed); while 12,000,000 belong to tribes who descend from the occupiers of India before the Aryan immigration took place. There are 4,000,000 Buddhists and a few Jews and Parsees. The Roman Catholics claim 640,000 native adherents; chiefly found in the extreme south, and descended from the ancient community known as the Christians of St. Thomas. The Protestant missionaries estimated the numbers attached to their persuasion at 213,000 in 1862; but the total is thought to have greatly augmented since the date of that estimate, chiefly by conversion among the aboriginal tribes in remote parts of India and in Burmah. The Christians of European and mixed origin are estimated at about 240,000.

Iowa will soon have four railroads connecting the Mississippi and Missouri rivers. The great central line, extending from Davenport to Council Bluffs, is just completed and in successful operation. Two others, one beginning at Dubuque and already built to Fort Dodge, and the other, at Burlington, will be completed in a few months. In addition to these there are now building the McGregor and Sioux City Line (to be completed to Sioux City by January 1); the St Louis and Cedar Rapids and Minnesota Road; the Fort Madison and Burlington Road; the Iowa River Road; the Iowa Central, the Desmoines and Indianola, and the Dacotah branch.

DESPERATE GAMING.—The Chinese, when their money is gone, sometimes stake their fingers on a single chance. During the game they keep by them a vase of sesame oil, under which a fire is kept burning, and between the players is placed a small but very sharp hatchet. When one wins, he takes the hand of the loser, places it on a stone and cuts off one of the fingers with the hatchet. The piece falls, and the loser immediately dips his hand into the hot oil, which cauterizes the wound. This operation does not prevent the players from beginning again. Such is the account of travelers who have visited China, incredible as it may appear to us.

There are in the United States 1,870 banks, representing a capital of little less than $500,000,000—$493,000,000, while the railroads in operation (43,000 miles) represent a capital of nearly two thousand millions of dollars—$1,800,000,000. The earnings of the banks may be estimated at from fifty to sixty millions of dollars annually, while the earnings of the railroads of New York alone last year were $49,661,000, and the whole United States $400,000,000.

A Gigantic Work—The Suez Canal.

This canal will be opened on the first of October next to all the ships of the world. This gigantic work is beyond the comprehension of people in this part of the world, who know nothing of the deathly heats and blinding sands of Lower Egypt. In 1846 M. Ferdinand de Lesseps, the distinguished French engineer, and cousin of Eugenie, while sitting on the verandah of his hotel in Alexandria, smoking his cigarette, viewing with his glass the immense camel trains laden with merchandise hobbling over the sands of the Isthmus, conceived the plan of what he has so triumphantly achieved. He said to himself ships must do that work; that a canal must be cut through to connect with the Mediterranean and Red seas.

After getting concessions from the Viceroy of Egypt and the Turkish government for the right of way, M. de Lesseps organized his company. In 1854 a company was organized in Paris, called the "Universal Maritime Suez Canal Company," with a capital of $50,000,000 gold, in shares of $100, or 500 francs, each. The grant or charter is for ninety-nine years. M. de Lesseps was made manager. The vice-royalty of Egypt was to receive fifteen per cent. of the earnings yearly. The ship tariff of the canal should be the same for all nations; at the end of the grant the Egyptain government comes into possession of the work.

To get ships from one sea into another, as a substitute for the camel trains which could be done by cutting a canal through the neck of land which connects the Mediterranean and Red seas, has been the wish indulged in by the kings and queens and viceroys of Egypt for two thousand years.

It was the favorite project of the Pharoahs. The work is supposed to have been once partially undertaken; but, whether from the want of "greenbacks" or of professional skill does not appear, the canal was not built. B

FINANCE AND COMMERCE.

WEEKLY REVIEW.

PORTLAND, July 30, 1869.

Gold was quoted at New York on the 29th, at 135¾@136⅛.

Legal Tenders at San Francisco quiet at 73¼@74c. Only [illegible] local [illegible] here, the price has been as high as 74½c buying, and 75c asking.

There is no new feature in the money market, since last report. Gold continues to leave us in answer to the [illegible] and at San Francisco for all [illegible] east and to foreign ports. Our circulation consists largely of silver coin which has never been so abundant. During the [illegible] there has been much discussion among business men concerning the needs of our State in regard to a circulating medium, and there has unquestionably grown [illegible] silver, in quarters [illegible] which existed before, that our business interests require the adoption of the [illegible] currency as the basis. It has become clear that [illegible] is continued as the basis of circulation, to the exclusion of currency, we must constantly labor under a scarcity of money and all basis must be transferred at great disadvantage, as regards the effect upon the commerce. The converts to the plan of adopting paper currency are becoming daily more numerous.

The produce market remains in much the same condition as last week. The demand for flour for Puget Sound and British Columbia is more active than for a long period, and is steadily growing. At San Francisco, there is a moderate demand for low grades for export to China, and a temporary advance for extra brands for home use. The latter is not expected to continue longer than will be necessary to get the new crop forward.

There is a slight advance in provisions. Hams—scarce at 17c; bacon—firm at 12c; lard—in tins in good demand at 18c, and in kegs at 16c; butter—quotable at 25c.

We have no changes to note, of consequence, in the merchandise market. In grocery lines, there is fair activity, while in other lines trade is quiet, as is usual during the harvest [illegible].

Eastern markets—By telegraph, Liverpool quotations for wheat, 10s 7d. New York—Flour nominal at $6 50. Wheat dull at $1 65@1 75. Latest reports regarding the crops indicate that the rains have done less damage throughout the country than was supposed. The Philadelphia Press of the 11th July says:

"Careful reports from all sections show that the harvest of this year will be one of the most generous within memory. Especially is this true of that great belt between the 38th and 42d degrees of latitude, wherein lies at present perhaps the real productive power of the nation. Never in the history of the Union have the crops of this rich section been either so abundant or promising as they appear to-day."

The quotations for wheat and flour are too low to admit of profitable shipment from this coast. There is no margin for shippers when flour at New York is lower than $10. Late advices represent that the markets are entirely bare of Oregon brands, though, on the 17th, a consignment of Imperial was looked for, which it was thought, would go readily, at the dock, at $9 50@9 75—the top price.

San Francisco Market—Following quotations are by telegraph on the 29th: Flour—local brands firm at following rates: for jobbing lots superfine, in sks, $4 87½@5 00, extra in sks, $5 75@6 87½. Wheat—fair to choice shipping at $1 67½@1 72½, and the same grades of milling at $1 65@1 75. Barley—New coast is quoted at $1 10; new bay, $1 15. Oats—California, $1 50@1 55; Oregon, $1 65@1 75. Potatoes—65@85c.

The Sacramento Union's San Francisco market review of the 22d inst. contains the following:

"In financial affairs there has been no improvement. Loans for business purposes cannot be obtained at any of the banks at less than 1¼@1½ per cent per month, by regular customers, on the best of collaterals. On the street, 2@3 per cent. are the regular rates. The continued scarcity of money has a very depressing effect on the real estate and stock market. The supply of gold from the mines is very light, owing to the stoppage of the leading mines in Nevada county, the [illegible] the strike among the miners, and the exhaustion of the supply of water in the placer mining counties. The supply of silver is increasing, but the offer is only a partial benefit to business, because very few of the local merchants will accept it at par in larger sums than $[illegible]. The steamer Costa Rica, which arrived from Mexico yesterday, brought nearly 250,000 Mexican dollars, destined for China and Japan. The exports of bullion via the Pacific Railroad during the past week have been $311,746 75—$216,742 was collected at the custom house, and the steamers for Panama took $236,958—a total of $814,447, which exceeds the amount received from all sources during the week.

In general markets, business continues extremely depressed, and the collecting of into for creditors becomes more difficult, owing to the increasing scarcity of money. The receipts of merchandise by steamer and sailing vessels continue very heavy, and prices, of nearly all descriptions of goods are weak in consequence of such a condition of affairs.

Building materials are remarkably dull, with stocks rapidly accumulating, owing to cessation of building for want of money. Prices have not changed, but, should the present stagnation continue it is expected there will be a considerable decline.

Coffee is held with considerable firmness at the following rates, but lots have been purchased at fully 1c per lb less during the past few days: Central American, 18@19c; Rio, 19½@[illegible]c; Costa Rica, 19@[illegible]c; Manilla, 18@18½.

Rice continues to accumulate. The Parsee has arrived with 9,995 mats from China, and there are several vessels nearly due with further large supplies. The advices from China report that market overstocked, in consequence of extraordinary good crops. Prices are very low. Here No. 1 China is offering at 5¾@5¾, No. 2 at 5¼@5½c. Siam is nominal at 5@6c.

Sugars continue firm at the recent advance, though supplies are heavy. The Ann brought 9,314 pkgs and the Prince Victor 7,454 from Peru, the Idaho 6,089 from Honolulu, the Parsee 440 from China. Eastern refined is offering at 14½c. Hawaiian raws of choice grade are firm at 12½@12¾c, China ditto at 9⅝@10⅛.

REMOVALS INTERMINABLE.—The Advocate says: The Oregon Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church will hold its coming session in Eugene City, commencing on next Thursday, August 5th.

The vote on Lay Delegation for Salem district stood as follows: For Lay Delegation 147, against Lay Delegation, 109, majority against Lay Delegation, 38.

Rev. J. W. York has been in charge of the Corvallis M E Church since the absence of Rev. R C Smith.

The number of votes cast by the membership of the Church within the bounds of this Conference, on the question of lay delegation has been exceedingly small, and we think from the reports received so far, the result will be very nearly a tie.

Rev. H. K. Hines, presiding elder of Puget Sound District, reports the following result of the vote on lay delegation, as taken on the several charges within the bounds of his district: Whole number of votes cast 72, for Lay Delegation 44, against Lay Delegation 28, majority for Lay Delegation 16. By reference to the Annual Minutes it will be seen that the total membership of the District, exclusive of the probationers, is 556.

The Cumberland Presbyterians and Methodists are to hold a Union Campmeeting at Newsom's camp ground, Marion county, beginning on Friday, September 10th.

The Unionist says: "The number of communicants within the jurisdiction of the Central Baptist Association of Oregon, is 1,016. The numbers of accessions to the Church within the past year by baptism was 132, number received by letter 31, total, 163."

EDUCATIONAL MATTERS.—A number of workmen are employed in preparing the ground at the corner of Madison and Fourth streets, for the new "St. Helens Female Seminary," to be established under the superintendence of Bishop Morris. Messrs Winnard and Shattuck are the contractors to put up the building, which will be thirty-six by fifty-six feet on the ground, and two stories high with French roof, and to cost about $8,000. The school, it is expected, will be opened about the first of September.

The Portland Academy and Female Seminary, Mr Gatch, Principal, closed its summer term last Wednesday. The vacation will last till the first Monday in September. At the annual meeting of Trustees, Thursday evening last, the following persons were recommended to the Annual Conference for election to fill the vacancies in the Board: I. Dillon, J. H. Wilbur, C. H. Lewis, C. Bills, A. Waltz, J. D. Holman, J. Failing. The officers of the Board for the ensuing year are as follows: President, W. H. Watkins; Vice President, J. Failing; Secretary, A. C. Gibbs; Treasurer, W. S. Ladd; Executive Committee, W. H. Watkins, M. P. Deady and E. J. Northrup.

The next term of the Vancouver Seminary will begin August 23d and end November 5th. The last two days will be devoted to the usual examination exercises.

OREGON HEADQUARTERS AT NEW YORK.—Mr. A. S. Mercer informs us that in connection with the Pioneer Line, the company have an office at New York which they intend to make an "Oregon Headquarters." They will fit up a spacious reading room where they will keep on file and open to the public, all Oregon publications which may be sent to them. They will also receive and place on exhibition all samples of Oregon productions which may be sent, properly labeled so as to give all possible information to visitors. Mr Mercer says that the mere display of a shipping sign at their office, 54 South street, attracted more attention, and gave rise to more inquiry about Oregon than any one here could possibly imagine. If Oregon newspapers and a good assortment of our productions could be kept on exhibition there, the result would be to greatly enlighten many people, and to deepen and widen the great interest which has already been awakened concerning our State. Mr. Mercer hopes that all Oregon and Washington papers will send copies of their publications for file. Address A. S. Mercer, 54 South street, New York.

FROM THE DALLES.—We clip the subjoined items from the Mountaineer of yesterday. The Deschutes river rose on Tuesday and Wednesday between three and four feet, causing the Columbia to rise some three inches at Celilo.

Mr. J. F. McCoy, of Portland, arrived here on Monday evening with eighty-five Chinese laborers, en route for the Willow Creek diggings. These laborers are intended for the Burnt River ditch.

We learn that the Wasco Woolen Mill, under the control of Mr. Benj. Snipes, will commence work again as soon as the water can be got through the Hood River Canal. A party of men went up on Wednesday for the purpose of completing the ditch and getting it in running order.

During the past week our merchants report doing a lively business. French & Co., and H. Grant & Co., have made several shipments to the interior. The last lot of Chinese that arrived here on Monday en route for the mines, probably expended not less than two thousand dollars in purchasing their outfits.

SMALL POX AT ASTORIA.—The Commercial has the following information from a gentleman from Astoria:

"Mr. A. Montgomery, U. S. Inspector of Revenue, is very sick with the small pox, which he contracted on board the Chilian ship Onward. For two days he has been delirious from the effects of the disease, having to be tied to be confined to the house. The young man employed to wait on him, from an extensive experience with the contagion, having been employed in a hospital where several hundred have been confined with the disease at one time, reports that Montgomery has it as virulently as any patient he ever saw. The members of the Montgomery family will be more than likely to contract the epidemic, as he has been in the house with them ever since having been stricken down. A policeman has been appointed to guard the house, and no person is allowed to go to or from the patient. Considerable excitement prevails on the subject among the citizens, who are taking every possible precaution to prevent its further spread in the town."

THE LEWIS RIVER MINES.—We saw a letter, yesterday, from a gentleman who lives on Lewis river, which speaks unfavorably of the mines, though the writer says the most he knows about them he learns from the newspapers of Vancouver and Portland. The Register of yesterday says: "The excitement about the mines still continues. We were informed by Mr. Marsh that Mr. Tuke had some of the gold called shot gold. He took out eight cents to the pan. Mr. Michael Winter says he wishes to get up no excitement, but that it will average five dollars per day. The miners have organized a mining district and passed mining laws. 300 feet is allowed to the man. The exodus still continues. Mr. Miller, the tailor, is leaving for the mines, also Deputy Sheriff Beall, and we don't know how many others. Seventy-five paying claims have already been taken up, and prospectors still flock in. The miners are mostly inhabitants of Vancouver and vicinity."

PORTLAND YACHT CLUB.—At a meeting of the Portland Yacht Club, held last evening at their rooms, it was decided to hold the next Regatta on Saturday, August 7th, when several new boats will participate, among which will probably be a boat from the ship Onward, as it was decided by the club at the meeting to extend a special invitation to Capt. White to that effect, and we hear it intimated he will probably accept, so we may expect a lively time. A committee was appointed to procure a prize and the same to be termed a citizens' prize and will be presented to the winning boat with appropriate speeches from the Commodore and others. Messrs. Sutton, Bowman, and Trevitt were appointed to serve as such committee. The race will be over the same course as the last Regatta and will be governed by the Rules of the club. Adjourned to meet next Friday evening at 8 o'clock.

BRO. IRELAND RETIRES.—In the Enterprise received last evening, Mr. D. C. Ireland, editor, announces the sale of the newspaper and his retirement from the editorial charge. We are not informed in regard to whom the establishment has been sold, nor what course the paper will hereafter pursue. We are sorry to lose Bro. Ireland from the newspaper fraternity. He has been connected for the last six or seven years with Oregon journalism, and has earned the reputation of a hard worker and a devoted advocate of the material interests and the development of Oregon. Good luck to him, any way, wherever he may go—whoever knows him will join us in the wish.

REV. C. S. SPRECHER.—This young divine who arrived in our city in company with Rev A. Myers, is the duly appointed Missionary of the Lutheran Home Missionary Society of the United States. Mr. Sprecher is the son of Rev. S. Sprecher, D. D., and President of Wittenberg College, and is acknowledged to be head of the Lutheran Church in America, and this young man, in his short ministry in his late charge East has demonstrated that much of the spirit and energy of his father exists in him. Portland may well be proud of this appointment.

THE STEAMER AND MAIL SERVICE INCREASED.—Mr. Reed informs us that hereafter, beginning on next Monday, the steamer running between Portland and Astoria will make three trips a week, leaving Portland on Mondays, and returning on the alternate days. This is to be a permanent arrangement. She will carry the U. S. Mail each trip, which is an addition of one mail per week to the Astoria. Fare to Astoria has already been reduced to $3, and freight will be reduced to $4 per ton. The arrangement will be a material increase of steamer and mail facilities to all the Columbia river towns.

FROM OCHOCO VALLEY.—From Mr. B. F. Prine, who is just in from the Ochoco Valley, we learn, says the Mountaineer, that many new settlers continue to arrive in that new section of country from west of the mountains. The entire length of Ochoco Valley for twenty miles is already claimed. Crooked river and the small streams putting into it for a distance of thirty miles from its mouth is filled with settlers. Over two thousand head of horned cattle and several thousand head of sheep are now grazing in that vicinity.

NOT DEAD.—The Commercial stated last evening that the Indian woman, Jenny, wounded in the brawl Wednesday morning, had since died of her wounds. An Indian who seems to know all about Jenny, came to us last evening with an indignant denial of the statement. He says Jenny has "hyas skookum tum tum—mamook hyou muck-a-muck—wake memaloose—klonas okoke mesachie tillicum chako kopa town wawaw kluniwit—cumtux." We told him "nowitka—hyas klose yumtux," and he went his way rejoicing.

IN STILL DEEPER TROUBLE.—The fellow Weiss who victimized some of our people, a few months ago, is serving out a three months' confinement in the jail at Victoria, for practicing confidence games upon Her Britannic Majesty's subjects. The other day he was brought out of jail and into court to answer to a charge of obtaining money under false pretences. One Thomas James testified that he had given the prisoner a watch to sell for him, which he sold and pocketed the proceeds. Remanded on this charge for one day.

VANCOUVER.—The Register says: Twelve families from Wisconsin are about to settle in Clarke county.

Sohns & Schuele have shipped 40,000 shingles within the past two weeks, and have an order from the Dalles for 10,000 more.

If Mr Remington meets with no relapse within the next two days, his physicians pronounce his recovery certain.

An old stable in rear of the Ordnance store, was burned Tuesday night.

NEW HAY.—During the last few days new hay has been coming in freely.

ROPE OF ALL SIZES, for sale by

NOTICE.

WE TAKE PLEASURE IN CALLING the attention of dealers to a valuable Patented Improvement in Silver Plating. Specimens of Forks (A which the above particulars are expected to wear) to give an EXTRA COAT OF SILVER!

THREE TIMES THE USUAL THICKNESS

Not on the back of the handle, heel of the fork and joints of knife, as is done, but on back of the handle and between and joints of times as thick as is usual to put it on.

This mode of Electro Plating greatly supercedes the old way of plating. The great advantage will be readily seen, as spoons and forks always wear through on these exposed points, while the plate is yet good on other parts of the article. This new process will add THREE TIMES TO THE DURABILITY of goods so plated.

Knives, forks and spoons stamped "1847 ROGERS BROTHERS A1 XII," are Electro Plated by the new Patented Process.

We have now been before the public since 1852, manufacturing ELECTRO PLATED GOODS, which have stood the most severe tests of wear in hotels, steamers and private families, and have given universal satisfaction, supplying, as it does, all of the advantages of silver in durability and beauty. We wish to call particular attention to the hardness and firmness of our White Metal, which exceeds anything of the kind made in this country. All goods plated on this metal bear our trade mark, and the plating is warranted THREE TIMES THE USUAL THICKNESS.

ENDORSEMENTS.

OLYMPIA, W. T., March 27, 1869.

C. A. WHITE, Esq.—Dear Sir: Having examined your original map, embracing that portion of Washington Territory west of the Cascade Range, I desire to add my testimony to its value. Having been engaged for a number of years in the survey of an Cape Flattery to the Head of Puget Sound, I have examined this portion of your map more critically than others, and I take pleasure in vouching for its general correctness.

This map will fill a want that has long been felt, not only among the residents of this Territory but others, who are desirous of obtaining information of this portion of the "Far West," and I trust that we shall soon see it in a form suitable for general distribution.

JAS. S. LAWSON,
Asst. U. S. C. S.

We endorse the annexed opinion of Jas. S. Lawson, Esq., and will add that Mr. Chas. A. White is a practical surveyor, and has had access to the township maps in the two Land Offices in this territory, as also the Coast Survey charts, and we can vouch for his map of Washington Territory, west of the Cascade Range of Mountains, as being correct, and the only good map of the same territory that has been made.

Sandford, Insurance Commissioner of Massachusetts, in his Report for 1868, speaking of Dividends in Life Insurance Companies, says: "The sooner such guarantees cease to be made, and such expectations created, the sooner Life Insurance will come to rest on its true motive, and men insure their lives for security, and not for dividends. The best and most popular companies will then be those that promise only equity, and render all that they promise, and furnish the best security, with the most upright and judicious management."

"By the Stock plan, the full cash effect of the Premium is immediately secured to the Insured, the Company taking ALL the risk. By the Mutual plan, the full value in Insurance of the Premium paid, is not secured to the Policy-holder who takes a portion of the risk himself."

Labor and Capital

Every effort of the mechanic or common borer to elevate himself in the social or oral scale should and will be regarded by ery good citizen as a movement in the right rection To secure this and other good re- lts the absolute necessity of labor and pital working together, and with a due re- rd for justice and right on both sides, is at ice apparent. Laboring classes often come ne to secure the highest possible remune- tion for their labor, a policy which, so far, perfectly just and right. Every man has e right to fix the price of his own time and ill, and he may properly and legally com- ine with others for a like purpose, taking pon himself the risk of thereby bettering is condition. Each man must be his own dge as to whether he has made a good bar- ain by the exchange.

There is, however, a legal limit to all busi- ess transactions, and equally so to all com- inations to regulate the price of labor, to ictate to employers, and to control the action f those laborers who do or who do not enter nto such combinations. For instance, a umber of merchants enter into a mutual greement not to sell a certain article of mer- handise under a given price, but they have o right to say that other merchants shall ot sell, nor to take measures to prevent ther merchants from selling, nor to interfere with their business because they do sell, an rticle cheaper than they have agreed to do. So any number of mechanics or other pro- ducers may legally combine to fix their own wages, but they have no right to combine to prevent others from working for a less price, or to injure the business of any other because they employ those who work for less price than they are willing to work for. All com- binations of this kind are wrong, and though for a time they may, from force of circum- stances, succeed, they are yet perversive of law and order, and the reaction will eventual- ly be as bad for them as it is demoralizing in its tendencies and injurious to the community. There is no safety outside the path of right and justice, however flattering the pros- pect or temporarily successful any such wrong-doing may appear.

A case has recently been decided, judicially, in Pennsylvania, which touches the principle involved in this question of capital and labor, and is worth being carefully considered by all classes. It appears by the report of this case, published in the Miner's Journal, that the plaintiffs, Russell, Evans & Co., took charge of a colliery, that had not been worked for a considerable time. They let one gang- way to be driven by one Smith and his two sons After working a week, Curran, one of the defendants, claimed that the gangway be- longed to him, because he had once been em- ployed there. This claim was preposterous, but Smith was allowed to take Curran as a co-contractor. But the work progressed slowly and badly, and Russell, Evans & Co. discharged the whole party, and, after a while tried to procure others—whereupon, under the direction of a Union, the whole force of the colliery struck, leaving the works to re- main idle, by inducing others not to go to work until the unprofitable miners were re- stored.

Three miners were subsequently indicted for conspiracy to obstruct and defraud a mining firm by stopping their works, and being found guilty, were sentenced to pay a fine of one hundred dollars each, and be imprisoned for the term of thirty days. The judge in summing up the case to the jury, said:

The charge in this indictment is for maliciously combining to stop the colliery, and preventing any work in or about the same; and also combin- ing to control the work in the gangway, and to dictate to Russell, Evans & Co., who should or who should not work in it—thus virtually con- trolling the works, and dictating its management and fixing for their employers the prices to be paid by them to those whom they do not, but ought to have the right to employ.

A conspiracy consists, according to all the au- thorities, not in the accomplishment of any un- lawful or injurious purpose, nor in any one act moving toward that purpose, but in the actual concert and agreement of two or more persons to effect something, which being so concerted and agreed, the law regards as the object of an indict- able conspiracy.

The gist of a conspiracy is the unlawful con- spiracy to do an unlawful act or a lawful act for an unlawful purpose, though nothing be done in prosecution of it—the offence being complete when the confederacy is made.

If the series of acts is to be performed with a view to produce a particular result, he who aids in the performance of these acts, in order to bring about the result, knowing what the result is—and if he operates with others, knowing them to have the same design—there is, in fact, an agreement between him and them. And it does not matter at what period any one enters into the conspiracy; if he knows the object and aids in its execution, he is responsible for all that was done before he entered into the combination.

Now, Russell, Evans & Co., own this colliery. They have a right to employ whomsoever they please to work for them, and have a right to dis- charge those they employ whenever they do not require their services for any reason. No man will put his capital into business without he can control it. This is more essential in the produc- tion of coal than in most businesses. It requires good management to make the investment profit- able, and unless he can control his business he had better abandon it; and this would be the re- sult, from choice or necessity, sooner or later.

The laborer has his rights and will be protected in all of them. He can work when and for whom he pleases, for what wages he can get, and at such times as he pleases. There is no compulsion ex- cept the Divine injunction, and that appeals to all indiscriminately.

If there was a combination by these defendants among themselves or with others connected with them, to injure Russell, Evans & Co., by stopping their colliery, to subject them to loss and dam- ages; and if another object of this combination was to keep this colliery idle, until Russell, Evans & Co., should be compelled to take back into their employ one of the defendants (Curran) to drive their gangway; from which Curran had been discharged, such a conspiracy is unlawful and illegal. These defendants have no right to dictate whom the owners of this colliery shall employ, nor say that they shall not allow their work to be done by such as they employ for the purpose. If no one but Curran can work in this gangway, he can fix his own price, or the pro- prietors must allow it to stand. Thus you see the proprietors are deprived of the common and ordinary competition in the cost of production. It not only has a tendency to oppress individuals by unjustly subjecting them to the power of the confederates, and giving effect to the purpose of this latter, whether of extortion or mischief; but has a necessary tendency to prejudice the public. Such combinations are criminal.

The association sustained Curran in his claim to work this gangway, and all stood out and re- fused to work until Curran was permitted by Rus- sell, Evans & Co., to return to it. The notice by Owens to Russell, Evans & Co., that the colliery could not start until they should put him to work in this gangway—the fact that Keating was a mem- ber of the Union, which sustained Curran in his demand, and all the circumstances in evidence, present two questions: Was the refusal to work the result of the action of the association; and if so, were these defendants members of the associa- tion and participating in its action? You may fairly infer from the evidence that all were mem- bers, because the action of the association and the conduct of the defendants tend towards one and the same end—if you believe the evidence. If this society or union, acting in its associate ca- pacity, brought about this strike, and upheld Cur- ran's extraordinary demand, then all who are in the association and participated in its action, are guilty.

Probably no clearer and sounder statement of both the legal and economical principles involved in this question, which is now so much agitated and discussed, was ever pre- sented than we have here. This charge is therefore worthy of special attention. It ex- actly meets many cases which have arisen of late throughout the country

It has sometimes been contended that be- cause capital has the power, which is occa- sionally used, to take advantage of labor, therefore labor has a right to combine and use extraordinary means for its protection and defence. This reasoning is fallacious, and is sure to end in trouble. Whatever ex- cuse there may be for it in monarchical coun- tries, where the ballot is denied to the labor- ing class, there is none whatever for it in this free land. The people will not long tolerate an unjust law, or one that bears unequally upon any class. The politicians have too much respect for the ballot to allow the pub- lic feeling to become unduly excited upon a question which might affect their own stand- ing in the party to which they belong. As the laboring class here always have the bal- lot, and are always in a majority, they of course keep the remedy in their own hands, without resorting to illegal or extra-judicial measures for redress of any real or fancied grievances. Labor, like any other com- modity, will have its price in the market, subject to the law which governs demand and supply. While combinations may be made, like those in the flour or money market, to raise the price of labor by decreasing or with- holding the supply, the effect can be only temporary, and will not be without bad re- sults in the end. If the cost of production is increased, the consumer bears his share of that increased cost, besides the attendant ex- pense, including loss of time, &c. Anything looking to force has a bad ending. It is bet- ter to endure wrong for a time, rather than commit another wrong in the attempt to cor- rect the first. This world is not perfect, and so long as humanity is frail, injustice will ex- ist. Harmony between the employer and employed is above all things desirable. The interests of both will be best subserved by it. If the former are unjust in their dealings, grasping and grinding those whom they em- ploy, they can have little peace of mind, and must inevitably drive their employees to combine for their own defense. If, on the other hand, the employed demand more than a fair compensation, either individually or by combination, they will drive away business from their own locality to some other where the requirements of labor are more reason- able.

In General.

Isaac Toucey of Connecticut, who was Secretary of the Navy under President Buch- anan, and who, while acting in that capacity took advantage of the opportunities which his position gave him to bear a leading part in organizing the late rebellion to overthrow the Government, is reported to be very ill at Hartford, and past all hopes of recovery.

A general survey of Democratic platforms of the present year is not calculated to im- press one with the idea that the party have learned much even yet from their adversity. They have pointed their guns where the old marks were, as if there had been no move- ment during the last ten years, and resolved to continue their unavailing fire We even find some of them still protesting against the abolition of slavery!

The Herald thinks that in calling it a "flighty" paper, we used that word as iden- tical with "lively." This is modest. We used the word "flighty" in its "dictionary sense,"—the manner in which we usually employ words. The dictionary at our elbow defines the word in question thus: "Wild, disordered in mind; somewhat delirious." We have no desire to find fault with or amend this definition on this occasion.

The Salem Press informs its readers that "the right of the negro to hold office is an established policy of Congress and of the Ex- ecutive." Indeed! And we find the Democ- racy accepting this same policy with a won- drous liking. Witness their action in Vir- ginia in electing a Conservative "nigger" to Congress to sit by the side of Rev. Joseph Smith of Oregon. Witness also the election of a dozen "niggers" to the Virginia Legisla- ture by Democratic votes.

The proposition to bring Chinese into this country has not only attracted the attention of Koopmanschap, who proposes to bring them by way of San Francisco, but now we have it that Gen. Hiram Walbridge and others, with a capital of $20,000,000, propose to build steamships to run by way of the Suez Canal to India and China for the purpose of secur- ing this class of laborers for our Eastern States. The discussion of these projects is a principle topic in the Eastern press.

The press of San Francisco is just now en- gaged in denouncing the frequent changes of text books in the schools of that city as an imposition which has become unbearable, and the public are up in arms against it. The Bulletin says the secret of the frequent changes is the "profit made on selling the books. If standard and accepted school works were furnished by the city or State Board at prime cost, there would be an end of this vexatious changing of text books and a reduction of fifty per cent. in the outlay of parents." There is hardly a school district in Oregon where an imposition of a similar kind has not been felt.

A recent Washington dispatch says Vincent Collyer, Secretary to the United States Indian Commission, organized at the Cooper Institute a year ago, says he visited and closely inspected thirty one tribes, in their wigwams and native homes, numbering nearly 66,000 souls, located in Kansas, the Indian Territory, Texas, New Mexi- co, Arizona and Colorado. Some of the tribes are the most warlike and troublesome in the country Others are more civilized. Among them all he was well received, and in many tribes with mark ed hospitality

At Hamilton the raftsmen drove the remainder of the crew ashore and then commanded the Captain to proceed up the river, threatening to burn the boat. The captain man- aged to telegraph the sheriff of Rock Island, who immediately chartered a special train and left with a large force well armed, overtook the boat at Clinton and brought her back to Rock Island. Forty-two raftsmen were arrested and lodged in jail, which is guarded by a strong force of police. The city is full of raftsmen, but an extra force of police is employed and it is thought there will be no disturbance.

THE WEST.

John G Saxe, the humorous American poet, is coming out to the Pacific coast in September.

An Indian was hanged at Victoria on the 24th for the murder of a white man named William Robinson

Mr Seward is expected to return to Victoria about the 15th of August. And the people of that place are making preparations for a grand ban quet in honor of him. He tells the British Co lumbia people that in two years their country will be a part of the United States

The San Francisco Call now takes from the California Associated Press five hundred words daily, for which it pays per report $1,000 per month The Call, says the Bee, is being run pretty closely by the Chronicle, and has doubtless been forced in self-defense into this extra ex pense.

White Pine rejoices in a poetess named Wil liamson Her latest effusion is pronounced by a local paper "a wonderful production, grander in conception and sweeter in detail than anything we have read for many a day. It sounds on the soul with a tone akin to that which beats upon the ear when soft music floats from afar over still waters."

A San Francisco paper has the following, which is very well done The Chicago commercial del- egation were regaled with a magnificent banquet at the Lick House on last Monday evening by some of the leading citizens of the city. The af fair was characterized by the proceedings usual on such occasions. Gov. Haight, Fung Tang and others furnished the speeches.

The walls of the large reading room of the Or- leans Hotel, Sacramento, have been rented by Chicagoans and are used for the display of highly colored painted placards and signs of incorporated companies and business houses of Chicago. To appreciate the audacity of this proceeding, let us imagine the like by San Franciscoans in one of the principal hotels of Milwaukee'

A letter from Delta, W. T., says. "Last week on the Touchet, about eight miles from here a man named Shellsworth shot at his wife with a revolver, the ball passing between her arm and breast slightly hurting the arm and striking the post of the chair on which she was sitting. He then went into an adjoining room and shot him self through the left side below the heart. He is still living. Cause, domestic troubles."

A Victoria paper of the 27th says H. M. S. Spuyuchuk sailed yesterday afternoon at twenty minutes past 2 o'clock for Hardlay Sound, having on board the two Indians sentenced to death for the John Bright massacre, High Sheriff Elliott, and a detachment of marines from H. M. S. Satellite. The scaffold, which has seen ser- vice for many years at Victoria and Nanaimo, was taken on board, together with a number of workmen to put it together

The Sacramento Bee says "In every election held upon the Pacific coast, since the last Presi dential election, the Republicans have gained by increased majorities." There have been we be lieve three city or town elections in California, two or three in Nevada, and one in Portland, and now the official election news comes from Wash ington Territory, where the rule is maintained! Here is evidence that the Republicans can carry California in the coming contest.

FROM THE NORTH.

The Victoria Colonist of the 27th, has the an- nexed dispatch.

LOPEZ ISLAND, July 30.—We raised the cable from Fidalgo Island, Williamson Rock, yesterday, when the cable parted, then we came westward about one mile and grappled it in forty five fath oms of water, raised it and underran back to the end. Can get a slight current through, but not sufficient to work, the current from the Victoria battery being very weak, owing to some fault be tween that place and San Juan Island. We will get a proper battery to-morrow, and test the cable, if it proves sound, connection will be made to- morrow night; if not the cable will be raised until the fault is found.

ROSARIO STRAITS, July 26.—Upon testing the cable was found to be still faulty. We commence ed raising it at 9 A. M., the cable coming in very much twisted and frayed from chafing against the rocks. At 11 o'clock the cable parted again; we then ran to Lopez Island and discharged from the scow the portion we had raised, and at 5 P. M. commenced raising from the Lopez end. If it breaks again it is a case of grappling or new cable. It will now take a week or ten days before com munication is restored, as nearly all the cable re- quires repair. Shall probably return to Victoria for that purpose.

Fires are still raging fiercely on the Seattle side, north and south, and between Monticello and Port Townsend. It seems that the fates are against the telegraph company.
